Getting there from Swansea by Bicycle

- From Central Swansea take the main bicycle path along the Swansea Bay promenade towards Mumbles.
- Continue on this path until you go past a Lido and children s play area on your right.
- As you pass the Lido and 'The Junction Café' go to the main road.
- You will need to either cross the road at the pedestrian lights, or get into the right hand lane of the dual carriageway.
- Take the road to the right sign posted 'Gower' onto the Mayals Road (B4436).
- Keep going straight up this road and you will soon be on the Common.
- Keep going straight along the Common – this is still the B4436 but is known as 'Northway'.
- Take a left on Murton Green Road sign posted 'Murton'. (If you go past a small petrol station on your right you have gone too far!)
- Take a left at the 'T' junction onto Manselfield Road towards Manselfield.
- The road narrows, go past a number of houses and you will see an island of grass on your right. Pull in there. (If you go past a BT Payphone on your right you have just gone past the grass island).
- Continue down the marked footpath/bridleway.
- Enter the field on the left with the large oak gate.
