

Gower Landscape Partnership

Free Adventure and Taster Activities

Free 1 day courses on Gower

if you are from Bishopston/Fairwood/Gower/Llangyfelach/Mawr/Penclawdd/Pennard/Pontardulais/Clydach/Gorseinon/Gowerton

Monday 22 September and Monday 29 September	Adventure activities on the heritage coastline Abseiling, rock climbing and maybe coasteering along south Gower heritage coastline (subject to weather/tide conditions)
Friday 3 October and Friday 10 October	Woodland management Practical day in Mill Wood learning about thinning trees and processing timber as well cooking on a fire
Monday 6 October	Cooking on fire Cooking great food with an earth oven and open fire on our Murton site
Friday 17 October and Friday 24 October	Cleft fencing Splitting round wood timber and installing traditional fencing without concrete at our Cilibion site
Tuesday 28 October	Timber framing with round pole timber Introduction to building with timber in the round on our new training centre at our Cilibion site
Friday 31 October and Friday 7 November	Dry stone walling Building a wall with local stone at our Cilibion site
Friday 14 November and Friday 21 November	Hedgelaying Traditional, hand tool based laying of hedgerows at our Cilibion site
Down to Earth is a not for profit social enterprise specialising in traditional and sustainable construction and use of the outdoors	To find out more or book a place: 01792 232 439 courses@downtoearthproject.org.uk